Recruitment # 1138-09

Opens: March 9, 2009

Closes: Open Continuous

Only the applicants who pass the fitness ability test will be allowed to take a 2-hour multiple-choice test that assesses your knowledge, skills, abilities, and aptitude to perform the duties of the job.

Only the applicants who pass the fitness ability and multiple-choice tests will be scheduled for an oral test. On this testing date, psychological testing, pre-polygraph interview and fingerprinting will also take place.

Only those applicants who pass each of these tests will have their names placed on the eligibility list (register) in ranked score order. The final score will be a combination of the multiple-choice and the oral test scores. When the process is complete, applicants will receive by mail a score notice indicating whether or not they have been placed on the register for Fish and Wildlife Officer 1.

The DFW will schedule the highest scoring candidates from the established register for a structured interview with the program.

Only those applicants who pass the structured interview administered by the DFW will move on to the polygraph exam, psychological evaluation, medical screening, background investigation and any other final process the DFW uses to screen for the highest caliber candidates.

Keep a copy of your application and exam responses.
You may be asked to provide them if contacted for an interview.
